MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Counterintelligence Staff, DO
National Intelligence Officer for FDIA
Director of Security

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Upcoming Counterintelligence Hearing

1. Dave Durenberger plans to hold hearings on counterintelligence and protecting our secrets sometime around the end of this month. This is in fulfillment of the commitment he made on the floor of the Senate in defeating a proposal to create a commission to deal with the concerns of the Walker case and other events earlier in the year. This requires us to review the whole structure for protecting our secrets.

2. We will have to be prepared to present it in a coherent way to the Committee. The focus of the whole exercise is likely to deal with the question of who is in charge and should one person be in charge. This is something we have faced before but this time it will likely be more difficult to deal with because it will address a broader range of concerns. Dick Stilwell tells me that Craig Alderman has been designated the new Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy and that he will be chairing the Countermeasures Subcommittee. We should bring Alderman and Jim Geer into this process as well as [redacted] who is acting for [redacted] during his absence.

3. I attach a copy of a report of conversation with the SSCI Staff on this subject. Will each of you think about how we should approach this and prepare for a meeting which should be attended by all of you and Messrs. Alderman, Geer and [redacted] We should probably have a meeting when the DDCI gets back.
